NANCY MASELLIS

About the Artist

Born and lives in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

She is an artist, graphic designer and an amateur photographer.

Her love of art started at the age of 12, by drawing and sketching animals and portraits with pencil, pastels and conte crayons.

High school, is where her passion of painting developed.

Her first oil painting was of a relatives house in Italy.

Over the years, she has continued her love of painting, primarily oils, but has also discovered acrylics and watercolors.

She had her first landscape group show in 2008 and has had her work displayed in restaurants and cafes in the Toronto area.

She knows when a painting is complete, when it gives her a feeling of wanting to go back to the place she has just visited.

Travelling inspires her to capture in paint what the eye can only remember.
