TINA WENKE

American artist, Tina Wenke's charming illustrations and endearing characters can be found on many products throughout the world. From greeting cards, polymer stamps, cross stitch and other crafts, to party papers, gift bags, children's clothing, frames, music boxes and prints.

After attending the Art Academy of Cincinnati, Tina began her career as an illustrator for Gibson Greetings.

Five years later she left Gibson to be a freelance artist while raising her three children.

Tina now works with her husband Mike, a graphic designer and lettering artist, from their home studio in Ohio.

Tina loves to work with different mediums. She'll use watercolors, acrylics, colored pencils, pastels and often the Wenkes will combine their talents to create exciting digital images.

Tina truly enjoys her work and pursues each project with great enthusiasm. "Being an artist is the best job ever because creating never really feels like work."
